THE SUNSHINE BANK.

The Sunshine Bank is a new institution, but not a new financial institution. It is conducted in the schools, the depositors are school children and the deposits are not cash items, but items that have brought sunshine and happiness into the lives of others. The Kansas City schools have an institution of this kind and its object, its working and the results accomplished are thus described by the Houston Post:

"There may be nothing new under the sun—but surely there are new applications of old things.

"Most people know of the savings banks in the public schools of the country where children are taught the value of money and the operations whereby it is conserved and put to work for the good of the community.

"But few people know of the new banking institution which is working such a change in the public schools of Kansas City that those welfare workers familiar with its results say no school can afford to do without its benign influence.

Arthur F. Killick was the originator of the 'Sunshine Bank.' In the operations of this institution in the Kansas City schools last year 7,000 children were interested. These student depositors handed in each day regular deposit slips properly made out.

"The deposits were kept posted to each account and records were placed where every interested child could see them.

"There was no money in the Sunshine Bank at the end of the school term. It is not a financial institution. For the deposit slips that are handed in each day are only records of good deeds done. Little kindnesses are recorded there to the credit of each child. Every thing that has brought sunshine into another's life is placed on the deposit slips and then transferred to permanent records.

"The plan is working such reforms in the schools of Kansas City that the city superintendent strongly commends the Sunshine Bank. It is a fine working plan for reforming the entire juvenile population of any city."

LOOKING FOR A LARGER POTATO.

Our old friend Buchanan of the Bryan Eagle is about to have a fit because he has been unable to discover a sweet potato to outweigh the one reported through the columns of the Examiner-Review a week or so ago. He skirmished about for a few days and reports one tipping the beam at ten pounds—just enough to even up our tuber. Buck is ordinarily truthful, but when it comes to any other county raising bigger potatoes and punkins than his old county, he blows up like a toy balloon. What we want to know is, who is going to fetch us a potato that will lay the other one in the shade? We simply have got to distance Buck or there will be no bragging with him.—Navasota Examiner.

Well, you've got us beat on good "in" and huntin', on good water and beautiful flower gardens, and we've got to contend for the champion something. The truth is, Ed, you are jealous of our horticultural and horticultural products and have been ever since we saw that 14-foot collard on you a year ago and proved our state's competency testimony. That's all. You have set well with you, no more of your fish story of catching a bass with Navasota Fishing Club lake. It was 12 inches long and had a girth 13 inches wide, has set well with you. You should not want all the

BRYAN'S BIG CLOTHING STORE

The free employment bureau of the city of Houston during the month of September found jobs for 1,132 persons. This is a helpful work that is being performed for the man or woman out of work and for the concern which needs employes or the home which needs help. There was a time when it cost certain classes of labor a large per cent of their first month's wages to obtain a situation through the private employment agency. The public bureau has done away with this expense. Today in Houston it costs neither employe nor employer a cent to be brought together.—Houston Post.

This is indeed a splendid work and the Eagle would be glad to see something of the kind in Bryan, worked perhaps through the Commercial Club. Really work of this kind is the highest and best form of charity—helping people to help themselves.

Von Hindenberg, the great German field marshal, is 69. The time honored adage of "old men for counsel and young men for war" does not hold true in his case. The world has seen few greater generals than Von Hindenberg.

The world baseball series will open Saturday and for the next few days the whole country will be baseball wild. If you hear some of our staid and sedate citizens offering to place their long green on the game, don't think strange of it, it's catching.

The Eagle would urge the importance of the clean-up campaign proposed for this week by the president and secretary of the Commercial Club. Clean-up campaigns are always in order from a health and sanitary standpoint, but just at this time there is an additional reason as to why we should exert ourselves in this direction. The Presbyterian Synod and synodical meet in Bryan next week and the city should be placed in proper condition for the reception of the visitors.

We have had glorious weather during the past month, and while everybody has been exceedingly busy, still the Eagle believes it would have been well for one or two automobile trade trips to have been made over the territory. People appreciate an invitation and we believe just a little effort on our part would have brought a large amount of cotton to Bryan that will go elsewhere, and many new people here to trade.

FROM OTHER VIEWPOINTS.

It might be all right to send Taft out to stump for Hughes, but his territory should be restricted to Utah and Vermont.—Pittsburgh Post.

It would be interesting if the Bre-men should turn out to be the Deutschland traveling incognito.—Washington Star.

Taft calls Huerta's accession to the Mexican presidency a coup d'etat. Our recollection is that it was a coup de grace.—Washington Herald.

Villa may be lots of things, but he is no 100 per cent corpse.—Macon Telegraph.

During his first day in Indiana, Mr. Hughes is reported to have acquired a mild sunburn, but it may have been caused by participation in a really red-hot political fight.—Indianapolis News.

CLEAN UP.

The Texas Presbyterian Synod meets with us on October 10 and 11. It is the desire of the citizens of Bryan that we show this representative gathering a clean town as well as providing entertainment for them, and to that end we call upon all our citizens to clean up their premises, cut weeds and remove rubbish, and to that end we designate Thursday and Friday of this week as clean up days for Bryan. This will entail a little work on your part, but you will be well repaid in the satisfaction of knowing that YOUR town is spic and span. DO IT FOR BRYAN.

MRS. CORA WADE.

One of the dear, noble women of the Wellborn community passed away last Monday night at 10 o'clock when Mrs. Cora Wade was called by the Angel of Death. Mrs. Wade had been sick for several months, but not seriously until about two weeks before her death. Nearly all her close relatives were present at the time of her death. She will be missed and her kind words and deeds can never be forgotten. She was loved by all who knew her.

To the many friends who so kindly attended her, we offer lasting gratitude, and may this sad event prove a blessing to all and may it warn you to so live that when the Master calls you may be ready.

It is hard to give her up.
But O it is sweet to know
That she is gone to be with God
Where sorrow can never go.
We shall meet her no more here below.

In this world of sorrow and care,
But at God's own good time
We shall meet her over there.
